ESTIMATED IMPACTS OF THE ENERGY CRISIS - WAR CONFLICTS IN UKRAINE AND THE MACROECONOMIC ENVIRONMENT

The global energy crisis has caused significant changes in the production cost as well the production units operation of the Group.

The most important impacts we are dealing with are the following:

-Continued price increases in paper and in the manufacture of all types of paper, resulting in a 40% increase in raw material prices,
 - Continued increases in transportation cost that have led to five times more expensive value of transportation in materials and freight containers,
 - Increased energy cost for the operation of our production units in both Greece and Romania.
 In this period, the Group has managed to re-adjust the selling prices in cooperation with the customers on several cases.

Regarding the war conflicts in Ukraine, the Group has no activities in Ukraine, Russia or in areas directly affected by the war conflicts. However, it is affected by factors that can lead to further increases in inflation.

At the same time, the Management of the Group monitors developments in the global economy with the rising inflation, rising energy prices and geopolitical tensions and with the adaptability shown by the management in the spread of the COVID-19 pandemic during the years 2020 and 2021, works in the direction to be able to face these external challenges without significant impacts in the financial results. The Group having proved its ability to adapt to the rapidly changing and unpredictable European market conditions, in which it operates, faces challenges and at the same time sees opportunities from the faster transition to the digital transformation of businesses.

INFORM has the proven expertise to implement investment projects to be announced with the support of the European recovery instrument Next Generation EU (NGEU), which is expected to finance the implementation of important structural reforms.
